Plaintiffs hereby requests the Second Circuit to answer the following pure questions of law:

1. Does the OSH Act under 29 U.S.C. §660 Section 11(c)(1) & (2) provide a private right of action to any employee who is wrongfully discharged by any public or private employer for exercising their First Amendment Free Exercise religious practice of refusing immunization/vaccines, medical treatment or medical testing, which religious practice is protected by the statutory provision of the OSH Act under 29 U.S.C. §669 Section 20(a)(5);
2. Does Section 1983 provide a private right of action for monetary and injunctive relief against the enforcement of a New York City vaccine mandate municipal law that:
 - a. violates the First Amendment Free Exercise Clause under both the strict scrutiny and rational basis tests; and
 - b. violates the federal OSH Act Preemption Clause under 29 USC §667 Sec. 18(a) and the OSH Act anti-discrimination clause under 29 U.S.C. §660 Section 11(c)(1) and the anti-vaccine mandate clause under 29 U.S.C. §669 Section 20(a)(5);
3. Should expert affidavits and plaintiffs affidavits attached to a complaint containing evidence to prove an essential element of a Plaintiffs claim and relied upon in a complaint through an incorporation by reference be considered a “written instrument” under FRCP Rule 10(a) and reviewed and considered as part of a complaint on a motion to dismiss; and

4. Does Judicial Canon 3B6 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges require a district court judge to at least hold a hearing to investigate and interrogate through questioning of a lawyer on the record who has been charged by an opposing lawyer for committing fraud on the court under FRCP Rule 11 and Rule 60(b)(3) for making a legal contention that was legally indefensible and groundless in law for which s judge is provided evidence indicating the likelihood of unprofessional conduct by the offending lawyer; and
5. Is it a breach of Judicial Canon 3A(2) for a federal district court judge to dismiss a case for failure to state a claim without ever providing the Plaintiff the right to be heard during the entire 2 and ½ year pendency of the case on all prior pending motions?
